Excalibur Award Description And Past Recipients

Excalibur Award – The Excalibur Award is given to one person or group each year “for exemplary civic duty and community involvement on behalf of the citizens of Garland and Camelot.” The winner is chosen by the past years recipient. The award is presented at our annual neighborhood picnic each fall. The winner receives a commemorative plaque in honor of their achievement and our community appreciation.

There have been 26 recipients of this award with two repeat winners. Etta Mauldin ('91 & '98). Etta was the head of our Beautification Committee for many years and remains active in her membership today. Rick Williams ('89 & '05). Rick has served in every CNA Executive Board position and has been the head of our Code Compliance committee for many years.
